COOKSEY-MacMULLIN STUDIO OPENS

The new Cooksey-MacMullin Studio on Brand Boulevard, in the new MacMullin Building, was opened to the public on Wednesday of this week and the many friends of the new firm took advantage of an invitation from them to inspect the new quarters.

A musical program was given and punch was served. The new home of the Studio is very beautiful and many words of praise were heard from those who were fortunate enough to be present.

IDENTIFIES BURGLAR

Father O'Neill's residence was entered a couple of Sunday's ago as stated in the Press last week. This week while reading a Los Angeles paper, Father O'Neill happened to notice a picture of a man who had been caught by the Los Angeles police in the act of robbing a residence. He immediately went to the jail in L. Angeles and identified the man as the one who had called upon him a short time previous and also identified the gun the man had on him when captured as the one stolen from his house.

GEORGE F. STINE

George F. Stine, age 77, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, September 16. Funeral services were held at the Church of the Flowers and interment was at Forest Lawn Cemetery. The L. G. Scovern Co. had charge of the funeral.

Glendale's $100,000 school bond issue was sold recently at a premium of $425 for the entire issue.

CLEARs ABOUT $80.00

At the Community Sing held at the home of Mrs. Ella Richardson last Friday night, about $100.00 was taken in and about $80.00 of this was clear velvet. This amount will put the Community Sing on the other side of the ledger and makes them happy. The show put up by those in charge was extra good and the attendance was very good also.

GREAT FALL FESTIVAL AND COUNTRY FAIR

At La Ramada Park for three days and nights, October 16, 17, and 18, the Catholic Church will hold a Great Fall Festival and Country Fair for the benefit of their proposed new church. The committee is working hard on the Fair and it promises to be very popular. There will be something for everybody.

WORKING ON WASH

The latter part of last week men and teams began work on the wash in the northern part of Glendale. There are two pile drivers at work on either side of the channel between Louise and Brand.

The scrapers have started leveling and the channel of the Wash will be in a different location from the looks of things at the Wash. G. E. Daley is the construction engineer in charge of the work.

The two reinforced concrete bridges to span this and carry the roadways over will be 90 feet in length. Bids for their construction are now before the Board of Supervisors and the contracts will be let about the first of October.

VALUABLE SOIL SURVEY OF GLENDALÉ AREA

We have just received from Congressman Randall a valuable publication of 78 pages, including a large colored map, devoted to a scientific soil survey of the Los Angeles Area, which includes this section of the county. This book gives a great fund of information about the soils and varieties of crops most suitable to be planted hereabouts. Congressman Randall at Washington will send a copy free to anyone who is interested in the subject.

DR. TEEL HOME AGAIN

The many friends that Dr. Teel has in Glendale, will be glad to know that he is home again after spending the past eight months in Germany.

It goes without saying that Dr. Teel is just as glad to get home as his many friends are glad to see him.

He left here on August 11 and went from here to France. After the armistice was signed he was sent to Germany where he has been until just recently discharged.

BURNING MONEY

Life is gay and blithe and sunny since the peace dove hit the breeze; every one is burning money just as though it grew on trees. I insist on thrift and saving, but there's none to heed my words; johnnies say that I am raving, and throw money to the birds. Men are drawing princely wages, and their breasts are filled with mirth, and they jeer foreboding sages who predict a day of dearth; but that day will come as surely as tomorrow's sun will rise; things will then be going poorly with the giddy spending thrift guys. Things won't boom along forever as they're booming now, my friends; and the man who's truly clever saves as ably as he spends. It is patent to the knowing, in expansive times like these, that the kopecks won't be growing always on the shrubs and trees. There will come a day of trouble, when this boom is left behind, and the kopeck and the ruble will be mighty hard to find; happy then the lads whose wages have been safely placed in brine, who obeyed the seers and sages, when the saving graft was fine. And how sick will be the mortals who like spendthrifts now behave, who reply with jeers and chortles when we call on them to save!

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees was held on Thursday night, all members being present, except Trustee Shaw.

The minutes of the regular meeting of September 11th, and adjourned meeting of September 12th, and the special meeting of September 16th were read and approved.

Communications

A communication addressed to the President of the Board was read from Walter S. Halliwell, calling attention to the Garst Wells at 603 West Broadway, which the communication stated are still pumping a large volume of water, and according to the communication can furnish sufficient water to supply all of Glendale. The communication stated that the owner of the property would be pleased to go into the matter with the Trustees of the City, if so desired.

On motion of Trustee Henry, the communication was ordered to be filed.

In Ref. Police Protection at Elks Club and Palace Grand Theatre

The City Marshal presented a written report in regard to the request of the Elks Club and of the Palace Grand Theatre for more police protection. The Marshal recommended that the request be denied, but that he be authorized to spend the sum of sixty dollars for investigating purposes, being one-half of the appropriation allowed in the budget for that purpose, to be used in hiring a watchman at intervals to watch the parked cars. On motion of Trustee Henry, the recommendation of the City Marshal was adopted, and the expenditure authorized to be made, all voting in favor.

Application from Broadway Auto Sales and Supply Station

An application was presented from the Broadway Auto Sales and Supply Company for permit to conduct auto passenger service. Being approved by the City Marshal the permit was granted on motion of Trustee Henry, all present voting in favor.

Communication from Railroad Commission

A communication was read from the Railroad Commission of the State of California announcing the postponement of the hearing set for September 25, 1919, to October 20, 1919, "In the matter of the practice of electric utilities as to extensions for service on the Commission's own motion".

City Attorney

The City Attorney presented a letter from E. C. Johnson, Chief Engineer of the Pacific Electric Railroad Company, acknowledging receipt of a communication from the City Attorney relative to a proposed crossing to be opened across the railroad company's right of way at the intersection of Gardena Avenue. The communication stated that the matter is being investigated and that the City will be advised as to the company's stand in the matter in the near future.

In regard to the request of the Southern California Edison Company for the addition of a clause in the contract with that company in regard to proportion of liability, he had notified the company that the proposal is not satisfactory.

The City Attorney stated in regard to the question of a gas supply for the Agar Company that during a session of the Railroad Commission recently the Engineer of the Gas Co. had stated that the matter is being investigated. In regard to the matter referred to in the communication from the Railroad Commission just read, the City Attorney stated that the Railroad Commission had written to the Electric Company in regard to complaints from prospective consumers to the effect that they were unable to secure extensions of service except at their own expense, and that the Commission had, on its own motion, instituted an investigation, and given the notice of public hearing.

The Commission had ordered that all electric utilities shall appear before the Board and show cause why they should not make connections for prospective consumer's at the company's expense in cases where the cost of the same shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

In Ref. Telephone Matter

In regard to the telephone matter, the City Attorney stated that it had been brought up before the Railroad Commission, and at the hearing nearly all the cities interested were represented. The most of the time had been taken up by the Telephone Company presenting their side of the case, which included a statement that before the government had taken over the service, the stock holders were receiving returns on their investment amounting to 5 per cent, but since that time, owing principally to increase in wages, and to other war conditions, this income had now been reduced to 3 and 3-6 per cent; the company therefore requested that the Commission do not lower existing rates. The statement was made by the Commission that the question had been investigated in 1914 and that the investigation had been pursued to some extent until the lines were taken over in 1918, the Commission having hearings at different points all over the state. The Commission had therefore accumulated data during the period covered and asked that the parties interested stipulate to accept the action of the Board passed upon that data. The City Attorney stated that he had asked the Commission to be furnished with the data referred to, and had been told that the records were open to investigation. Finally, all parties interested had agreed to the stipulation. The telephone company's representatives had stated that they would require two months further time in which to prepare their case.

The City Attorney further stated that he had informed the Commission that it is the desire of the City of Glendale that a hearing be held in this City—a request which the Commission stated would be considered. He had afterwards seen Mr. Brundage, Los Angeles, member of the Commission, and feels assured that a hearing will be held in this city.

Trustee Shaw entered at 8:35.

Adjourned Meeting to be Held Tuesday, September 23

Trustee Henry made a motion, which was adopted, that when the Board adjourned it be to meet at eight o'clock Tuesday night, September 23, 1919.

Adoption of Ordinance Changing the Names of Certain Streets

Trustee Shaw presented the ordinance read at the meeting of September 11, changing the names of certain streets in the City of Glendale and moved its adoption, which was so done.

The Board adjourned.

The greatest thing in the world today is service.

GLENDALE LAUNDRY WORKERS ENTERTAINED

Every year at about this time, W. E. Hewitt, of the Glendale Laundry, holds a get-to-gether meeting with his workers, and this year was no exception to the rule. Last Tuesday noon all the workers at the Laundry, there were 38 all together, assembled under the large trees at the Laundry, where the big tables were found loaded with good things to eat.

After the "eats" had been finished, Mr. Hewitt spoke in praise of the loyalty of his helpers. His remarks were warmly received by those who were present. Mr. Jackson, Mrs. Brock and Mrs. Inglis, spoke in behalf of the workers at the Laundry and their remarks also found a warm spot in the hearts of those present.

NOVEMBER ELEVENTH WILL BE LEGAL HOLIDAY

Acting upon numerous requests from various parts of California that a day other than September 9 be designated as California's Welcome-Home Day to the service men, Governor William D. Stevens has authorized the State Committee on Readjustment to inform the various communities of California that November 11, the anniversary of the armistice, to be designated as Welcome-Home Day, and he would declare it a legal holiday.

He said: "This will be a most appropriate occasion for the welcome-home celebrations that have been planned throughout the state in honor of returned soldiers, sailors and marines."

Welcome-Home Day should be a tremendous festival of appreciation. Governor Stephens is to make the day a general holiday, not connected with any other observance, as it would have been on the first day chosen. There will be no distractions to lessen the chief figure of the day. As he should be, when we welcome him, the service man will be the one object of devotion on November 11. Then we will make up for whatever lack of universality there was in the separate welcomes of our soldiers and sailors homecomings.

THE FAIR AND NEW CHURCH

Letter from Bishop to Father O'Neill

Diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles

Rev. James S. O'Neill,
827 East Lomita, Glendale, Cal.,

My Dear Father O'Neill:

I learned with great pleasure that your congregation has taken all necessary steps for the opening of a parish fair, to be held next month. I take this opportunity of wishing you every success upon the undertaking.

A very big work remains to be done by your devoted congregation. You need a church where the congregation may be properly housed, and which among other buildings will be really a House of God. You need also a school for your children. I have every confidence that your devoted people will support you in the work that you undertake, and that they will cheerfully share with the church in the material blessings that they have received from Almighty God. While we are in this world we have to use the things of earth as stepping stones to our eternal home. It should, therefore, be deemed a privilege to be allowed to use the things of time as aids to eternity.

Yours very devotedly in Christ,

JOHN J. CANTRELL,

Bishop of Monterey and Los Angeles.

LEAGUE CERTAIN SAYS WILSON

President in Opening Speeches of Tour Voices
High Hope

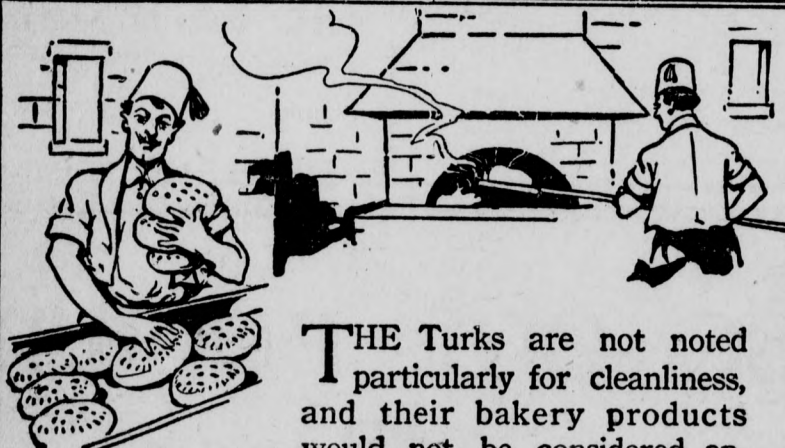

"WORLD WAITS FOR US"

Future Free From War if America
Carries Out Her Pledges,
Says Executive

By Mt. Clemens News Bureau.

Aboard President's Special Train, St. Louis.—Displaying a high confidence that his fellow citizens in the great majority agree with him in his desire to end war forever, and that they will see to it that the peace treaty with its league of nations inclusion is ratified by the Senate, President Wilson is making a successful way across the country on the long journey he has undertaken for the purpose of laying before the plain people a report of his work in Paris and explaining to them just what the league means. Thus far in his travels, he has everywhere met with warm greetings, both in the great halls where he has spoken formally and in the little cross road hamlets where his train has halted at times and he has exchanged words with the villagers who pressed forward to greet him. He feels, and does not hesitate to say so when chatting with his traveling companions, that the American people want no more of war and want to become part of the league so that there may be no more war. He struck his keynote when he said in his first address, in Columbus, Ohio:

"This treaty was not intended merely to end this single war. It is meant as a notice to every government who in the future will attempt this thing (what Germany attempted) that mankind will unite to inflict the same punishment. There is no national triumph to be recorded in this treaty. There is no glory sought for any particular nation. The thought of the statesmen collected around that table was of their people, of the sufferings they had gone through, of the losses they had incurred, of that great throbbing heart which was so depressed, so forlorn, so sad in every memory it had of the five tragical years that have gone by. Let us never forget those years, my fellow countrymen; let us never forget the purpose, high and disinterested, with which America lent its strength, not for its own glory but for the defense of mankind.

"As I said, this treaty was not intended merely to end this war. It was intended to prevent any similar war. I wonder if some of the opponents of the league of nations have forgotten the promises we made our people before we went to that peace table. We had taken by processes of law the flower of our youth from every countryside, from every household, and we told those mothers and fathers and sisters and wives and sweethearts that we were taking those men to fight a war which would end business of that sort, and if we do not end it, if we do not do the best that human concert of action can do to end it, we are of all men the most unfaithful—the most unfaithful to the loving hearts who suffered in this war, the most unfaithful to those households bowed in grief and yet lifted with the feeling that the lad laid down his life for a great thing, and, among other things, in order that other lads might never have to do the same thing.

"That is what the league of nations is for—to end this war justly and then not merely to serve notice on governments which would contemplate the same things Germany contemplated that they will do so at their peril, but also concerning the combination of power which will prove to them that they will do it at their peril. It is idle to say the world will combine against you; but it is persuasive to say the world is combined against you. The league of nations is the only thing that can prevent the recurrence of this dreadful catastrophe and redeem our promises."

"A League of Nations would have prevented the late conflict," the President asserted, explaining: "I did not meet a single public man who did not admit these things: That Germany would not have gone into this war if she thought Great Britain was going into it, and that she most certainly would never have gone into it had she dreamed America was going into it. And they all admit that a notice beforehand that the greatest powers of the world would combine to prevent this sort of thing, would prevent it absolutely."

Applause and cheers greeted each declaration of the President that wars might be avoided in the future by the operations of the league. He pointed out other important features of the peace treaty, how it was the redemption of weak nations, giving them freedom which otherwise they never could have won; how it says, "those people have a right to live their own lives under governments which they themselves choose," and how "that is the American principle and I was glad to fight for it." That was the very heart of the treaty he said.

AT THE PALACE GRAND

The Palace Grand has a great line up of pictures to be shown for the following week. Today's picture, starring Dorothy Gish in "Nobody Home" or "Out of Luck," is another of D. W. Griffith's great pictures. In addition to the feature there will be shown Joe Martin the only monkey actor in "Jazz Monkey," which is a comedy scream. Also the homecoming of General John J. Pershing in "The Weapon of Destiny."

Sunday, September 21 a big Lois Weber attraction presenting Mildred Harris (Mrs. Charlie Chaplin) in a new production, "Home." As a special added attraction will be shown a Mack Sennett comedy, "The Dentist."

For Monday, September 22, William Fox presents a triumphant Hawaiian drama, "A Fallen Idol" with Evelyn Nesbit playing the star role. Also Gaumont Latest News Events and the latest Strand comedy.

For Tuesday, September 23 will be shown a powerfully thrilling melodrama—the sensation of two continents, "The Man Who Stayed at Home" with an All Star cast. There will also be a Harold Lloyd comedy, "He Never Touched Me." Also Bruce Wonder Mountain Picture.

"THE MAN WHO STAYED AT HOME"

"The Gray Horizon," featuring the Japanese actor, Sessue Hayakawa, will be the showing for Wednesday, September 24. This is one of the Jap's best pictures and is a story of thrills and suspense. There will also be shown a Lyons-Moran comedy, "The Tea Hound," and Pathe Latest World News.

A real genuine comedy drama will be the offering for Thursday, September 25, when Bryant Washburn will be seen in his latest, "A Very Good Young Man." This is an unusual picture and should bring a packed house. There will be an Outing Chester Indian Picture, and the Kinogram News.

The latest Paramount Arctcraft success, "The Virtuous Thief" will be shown on Friday, September 26, starring Enid Bennett, Niles Walsh and other stars. This story is more than interesting and you should not miss
